

Patrick "Padd" Williams

By Nyla Creed DePauk

Patrick "Padd" Williams was born about 1810, in Virginia. He married first Mary "Polly" Scarbrough about 1828, daughter of John Scarbrough and Eleanor Harper. She was born between 1812 and 1815 in Monroe County. He married second Elizabeth Ballenger on January 26, 1871. They were married by the Reverend James Scarbrough. Elizabeth was born about 1827.

One of the three Williams families listed in the 1830 Logan County, Virginia, census was that of Patrick Williams. Patrick was also listed in the 1840 Fayette County, Virginia, census.

Captain William Turner, in his article entitled "Stover and Williams Reunion 1923 - Reminiscences," states that "Lonesome Dave" Williams had a son Patrick who was called "Padd."
