J ames Dillonis(?) Clerk

Heirs of Thomas McMillan,

This deed made 12th day of November in the year 1872 between John W. McMillan, Jordan McMillan, Benedict McMillan, Lincoln White, George White and Hella White heirs of law of the estate of Thomas McMillan. Deceased of the first part and John Oscar McMillan of the second part. In consideration of the sum of 1050.00 dollars. The principle hereby agree the said party of the first part doith grant unto the said party of the second part the following described property. A piece of land in Marshall Co. West Virginia containing 32 acres. The said John W. McMillan, Jordan McMillan, Benedict McMillan, Lincoln White, George White and Hella White heirs of Thomas McMillan deceased of the first part doith hereby covenant with the said party of the second part that they will warrant generally the property hereby conveyed through the following signatures and seals.

John W. McMillan
Jordan McMillan by W.A. Knox
Christian White
Benedict McMillan
Walter McMillan

Marshall Co. to with:
I William Lydick and W.A. Knox justice of the peace for aftersaid county with the state of W.Va. do testify that the above signed to the agreement above on the 12th of November in the township of Cameron this 14th day of Nov.

Notes: Christian White (born 1820) husband to Henrietta (1826-1866) daughter of Thomas McMillan.
Benedict had a note by his signature saying his mark. Could mean he couldn't write or more likely Walter was signing for him? The Walter (1818-1866) couldn't be Thomas's son but could be Walter's son Walter (1849-?)

There was a description of the land included in the records.

3. JOHN W. 3 MCMLLAN (THOMAS2, HUGH1) was born Jun 29, 1816 in Frederick Co. Virginia, and died 1884 in Marshall Co. WV. He married MARY ANN “GRANNY” GRAY1 Sep 08, 1842 in Ohio Co. Virginia. She was born Apr 25, 1825 in Frederick Co. Virginia, and died 1907 in Marshall Co. WV.

Notes for JOHN W. MCMLLAN:
History of Marshall Co. Book at Library

   It seems there was an elderly gentleman living in the home of John and Mary Ann McMillan. The census records for Marshall Co., WV give his name as Thomas McMillan. The 1860 census gives his age as 66 years. Born in Maryland. In the 1870 census, his age is 73 years. There is a 3 yr. discrepancy in the census records. His name wasn't listed in the 1880 census, he probably died between 1870 and 1880. From these dates and ages he must have been born in the late 1700's probably between 1794 and 1797. He no doubt was the father of John McMillan and the grandpap who took Priscilla Jane by the hand as they walked down to survey the damage the big frost had done to the garden on June 5, 1859.[Mcmillan2.FTW]

John W. Mcmillan,(1816-1884), was born in Frederick County, Virginia and buried in a family cemetery on Uncle Jim and Aunt Hester Cunninghams old farm near Calis, W.Va.
Mary Ann Gray Mcmillan (1825-1906 or 07) was born in Frederick Co. Virginia.
John and Mary Ann were married in 1842, Ohio Co. Virginia. Mary Ann was always Known to all the family as “Granny”. She had a brother and sister who was a college professor and a sister Louise who was a doctor which was unusual at that early date. My mother, Edna Cunningham Guthrie, who was almost 98 when she died in 1981 remembered her great aunt Louise.
Olan T. Mcmillan a retired university professor living in Flint Michigan is researching the Mcmillan family. He has uncovered information that links President Monroe to the Mcmillans. Olan is a grandson of Oscar Mcmillan and son of Clarence.
Isadora Mcmillan Aisenbrey of Alpena South Dakota, daughter of Fedora and Hodge Mcmillan said that President Monroe gave someone in the family some beautiful curtains.
The farm situated on Chestnut Ridge where Oscar Mcmillan lived was Granny's old farm. Lots of elderly people "lived around" at that time. Granny spent most of her time with Aunt Ida Belle, Aunt Hester and our grandmother Priscilla Jane. She is buried in Mount Hope Cemetery, Calis W.Va.

My grandmother Priscilla Jane remembered the "big freeze" of June 5, 1859. I was six and I remember grandpa (must be Thomas) took me by the hand and we walked down across the yard to the edge of the garden. We just stood there and looked. Everything was black, frozen stiff. She said it was too late to replant the garden and everyone planted buckwheat, because it was a quick growing crop. That section of W.Va. practically lived on buckwheat that year.

Her brother Hiram Thomas McMillan was away serving the civil war. One morning she said mother if Tom were only home I could eat my breakfast. There was a little creek at the edge of the yard where they ran down to wash up every morning for breakfast. This particular morning as they were washing they heard someone whistling. They looked up and saw Tom coming down over the hill home.

My mother, Edna Guthrie was only five when her father Pap Cunningham died. Uncle Jesse was about three and uncle Charlie was born only three months following his death. Grandma left with eight living children married again and later in 1909 married W.A. Briggs. They lived in Canandaigua, N.Y. for several years, eventually coming back to Pa. And WV.

An agreement at the Marshall Co. courthouse between Thomas and John W. dated 1-16-38 to lease 25 acres to John W. for 15 yrs and allow him to use 1 acre of cleared land for 5 yrs on the west side of the McMillan farm.

Some of the older people seem to think Lona was the one who had the tombstone replaced on John W. grave. The tombstones other than Johns are in bad shape.

I James Burley a commissioner appointed by the County Court of Marshall to state and settle the administrators account of Samuel Dorsey on the estate of Walter McMillan deceased, report that I posted the annexed notice for settling said account at the front door of the courthouse of Marshall County on the first day of the March term of the county court of said county for the year 1858 a similar notice having been posted at the front door of said court house on the first day of the February term of the said court for the year 1858 which February notice has been destroyed or taken down without my knowledge and on the 18th day of March 1858 this day fixed for settling said account at the place specified in said notice I proceeded to state and settle the same being first sworn by a Justice of said county of Marshall. I charged the administrator with the amount of the sale bill and the amount of a debt collected of Benedict McMillan amounting in all to $674.57 being the whole amount of the estate that came into his hands as admitted which may be seen by reference to the annexed statement marks and I then credit said administrator with the amount of his disbursement amounting to $116.87 which deducted from the above named sum of $674.57 leaves $557.76 in said administrators hands. I then deduct one third of said balance which he paid to Ruth McMillan widow of said Walter McMillan which was her share of said estate and amounts to $185.92 which leaves a net balance of $371.84 in said administrators hands as of the 4th day of June 1854 which is finding the time between the day the sale money became due and the time he collected the $263.07 of Benedict McMillan I also find by receipt produced that said administrator did on the 14th of January 1853 pay to said widow $165.77 more than her third of said estate but as he had no right as administrator to pay any such sum I have not allowed him credit for that in this apr but leave that to be settled in his account as guardian of the infant children of said Walter McMillan deceased and I have not allowed said administrator credit for any commissions as he does not make any charge for his trouble in settling of said estate all of which will fully appear on the annexed statement marked and the vouchers was produced for the items marked B an the administrations was qualified to those marked C and of which is respectfully submitted. Given under my hand this 18th day of March 1858

James Burley Commissioner

As told by Eleanor Stott:
A story has been told about the Confederate Army burning oil and wells at Burning Springs during the civil war. The story tells that Bathsheba (my Great Grandmother) begged the soldiers not to burn the oil near their house as it wuld destroy their home. Evidentaly the house was not burned as the family must of have lived there for another few years.

Notes for JOHN OSCAR MCMILLAN:
John Oscar moved from Mt. Hope Cemetery to Limestone, assume around time Sabra died. From Claude Kenny he said John bought a set of scales from Sears Rosebuck and kept them at the head of the lane. I guess to weigh produce and such.
John O. had a real fancy surry and on Sundays the family would dress in there finest and take the surry to church.
John was a Deacon at the Wolf Run Church and was supposed to have played a large part in having it built. Several of pictures of John show an advertisement for shoes. Maybe he was a shoe salesman also.

WILL OF JOHN OSCAR McMILLAN

I, John Oscar McMillan, of Webster District, Marshall County, West Virginia, being of sound and disposing mind and memory, do make, publish and declare this my last will and testament, hereby revoking any and all former wills by me at any time heretofore made; in manner following, that is to say:

First. I direct that all my debts and funeral expenses be paid by my executors hereinafter named, as soon after my decease as conveniently may be done.

Second. I give, devise and bequeath unto my children, C. G. McMillan, L.C. McMillan, Loud V. McMillan Kinney, C. A. McMillan and Ila McMillan Alexander, each the sum of Five hundred dollars ($500.00) to be paid to each of them in money, or notes secured by a deed of trust.

Third. In as much as my said son, C.G. McMillan owes me the sum of Six hundred dollars ($600.00), with interest thereon from 1904, I further will and direct that if the said sum and interest be not paid to me before my death, that the same shall be collected by my executors, less the Five hundred dollars ($500.00) hereinafter bequeathed to said C.G. McMillan, and divided equally among the said C.G. McMillan, L.C. McMillan, Loud V. McMillan Kinney, C.A. McMillan and Ila McMillan Alexander.
Fourth. I give, devise and bequeath unto my wife, Jennie S. McMillan, and to my daughters, Elua McMillan, Elizabeth McMillan Berch, Fern McMillan and Grace McMillan, all my real estate, (subject to the dower of their mother, the said Jennie S. McMillan, so long as she remains my widow), and I further will and direct that my said real estate shall be kept intact as a home for said four daughters and their said mother, if she remain unmarried, so long as my said wife shall live. Should my said four daughters last named all marry and leave said homestead during the life of their said mother, I further will and direct that my said executors shall rent the said real estate upon the best possible terms and after paying the taxes thereon annually, pay the remainder of the said rent to the said Eula McMillan, Elizabeth McMillan Berch, Fern McMillan and Grace McMillan, upon the said condition that they, or one of them, shall furnish the said Jennie McMillan a home.

Fifth. I hereby nominate, constitute and appoint my said sons C.A. McMillan and L.C. McMillan executors of this my last will and testament.

In Witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 22nd day of October, A.D. 1925.

John Oscar McMillan

Notes for Priscilla Jane McMillan:
[Mcmillan2.FTW]

Priscilla Jane could remember the "Big Frost" or "Big Freeze" of 1859. It occurred June 5, 1859. She said, "I was six years old. I remember grandpap took me by the hand and we walked down across the yard to the edge of the garden. We just stood there and looked. Everything was black, frozen stiff." She said it was too late to replant the garden and everyone planted buckwheat, because it was a quick growing crop. That particular section of WV practically lived on buckwheat that year. (We don't know how extensive the frost really was.)

Brooks-

In the two John O photos with wife and kids, I'd wondered what happened to the boy - now I know.

Bonehead - what a thing to call your horse! :-)

As for Albert, here's his story:

Albert studied law at Huron College; University of SD; Oxford, England as a Rhodes scholar; and University of Chicago. He and Effie Mae Horn (she hated the name "Effie" and was called Mae) were married in Chicago, and they moved back to Rapid City, SD for a while, where he was a lawyer and judge, then with financial help from Dr. Shull (the Alpena, SD local doctor), moved to Fort Lauderdale, Florida in 1925. He continued his law practice here and became a judge shortly thereafter.

Outside of work, his activities included singing in the church choir (other than this, I don't think he went to church), going to the movies, and supplementing the depression era family income with card games at the Elks Club.

Mae received her bachelor's from Yankton College, SD (and later was awarded an honorary doctorate from here) and was working on her Masters in French from U of Chicago when she got married, so her studies got cut short. Once in FL, to supplement the family income, Mae taught at the public school, until she was laid off (the depression hit FL about 10 years sooner than the rest of the country thanks to a couple of devastating hurricanes). The family still needed to eat, so she started tutoring "snow birds" - northern children that came with their parents for the winter. Soon she had so many students she needed assistant teachers, then a few classrooms, then a whole building, and voila! Pine Crest School was started. Here's the web address for the school as it is today: http://www.pinecrest.edu/ and the history of the school is at http://www.ftl.pinecrest.edu/history.htm

So to answer your question, no, Albert did not start a school - in fact, he had nothing to do with it.

William Hodge was not really a farmer. The following is from the Alpena paper (obituary and a piece on the founding members of the community) and a letter from his granddaughter, Medora Quiggle:

In WV, W.H. began dealing in livestock and produce from the farms in the community. Later he became interested in oil wells and with others, dropped a large sum of money in the oils fields. After visiting his cousins, Thomas L. White and George N. White in Cherry Township, SD, he lost no time in moving his family out there by spring of 1892. By 1902, he moved to Alpena, SD and nephews, including Clyde McMillan (show to be living with him on the 1900 census), helped him out on the farm while he bought hogs and cattle around Alpena and vicinity. W.H. organized literary and debating clubs, a Sunday School, and spelling contests. His other rolls included; Enumerator for the Twelfth (1900) Census of the United States for Cherry Township, postal carrier, installing telephone lines, owned a meat market, was mayor (during which time he had a water system and race track installed), installed (with help from son O.G.) a light (electrical) plant, and livestock auctioneer.

W.H. was a lover of horses and an expert in the saddle too. On trips into ND for some wild broncs, he showed the boys (presumably, his nephews and sons) how to pick off grouse with his six shooter. One of his pacers took first at the state fair. He was described as a 'red hot Republican,' and often argued and debated with 'real populist Democrat' cousin and close neighbor, Thomas White.

W.H.'s funeral was on a cold and stormy January day, yet there was "a goodly number of friends present for the services." He was a highly respected man of the community, know for his honesty and loyalty. Wife Medora was his "childhood acquaintance."

(According to Medora Quiggle...) 'I remember my grandparents very well. We called them 'Hipo' and 'Himo.' Hipo (W.H.) had a singing voice and I understand sang over the first telephone installed to the County Seat at Wessington Springs, SD. I know I always used to find him on the front porch when I played the piano in their parlor. Hipo sang the tunes for people in a music shop in Wheeling, WV, and that had to have been when he was very young. He had a little red car with a rumble seat which he drove around buying cattle.'

I don't have any info on the current family typed into FTM, but if you'd be interested in a rundown of them, just let me know!

Kathy

Death Notice:
"The Alpena Journal"
Alpena, Jerauld County, South Dakota
Thursday January 14, 1943

W. H. McMillan, 81, DIED WEDNESDAY

W. H. McMillan, aged 81 years passed away early Wednesday morning at his home in Alpena, after an acute illness of nearly a month. He suffered a stroke of apoplexy December 15, and failed to rally greatly.

Plans for the funeral have not yet been completed at the time of printing this issue.

Mr. McMillan is survived by six children: Miss Nina McMillan; Orville G McMillan, Manderson Wyo.; George McMillan, Gann Valley; Mrs. K T Aisenbrey, Alpena; Albert McMillan, Ft. Lauderdale, Florida; and Mrs. John Potter, Minneapolis, Minn.

Mr. McMillan, born in West Virginia, came to South Dakota in the early days, and after farming west of Alpena, came to Alpena nearly 40 years ago and engaged in various businesses; his main work always being dealing in livestock, establishing a market here that was the envy of other towns in this section. He retired from active work about ten years ago.

Funeral Service
"The Alpena Journal"
Alpena, Jerauld County, South Dakota
Thursday January 21, 1943

FINAL RITES HELD FOR W. H. McMillan HERE ON SATURDAY

Funeral services were held Saturday afternoon in the Alpena Methodist church for W. H. McMillan, who died Jan 13 at his home in Alpena following a month's illness.

The day was extremely cold and stormy, and many did not know of the time of the funeral, yet there was a goodly number of friends present for the services. There was a beautiful and large floral offering.

The Rev. Albert Hartt officiated at the service and three songs were sang by a mixed quartet: Mrs. Harold Neuharth, Mrs. Allen Brigham, Albert Schmidt, and Sam Burnison. Mrs. Lewis Aye was pianist.

The pallbearers were P. P. Myran, Robert Cook, Otto Winter, Mason Smith, A. J. Aisenbrey, and Allen Brigham.

Interment was made at the family plot in Rest Haven cemetery.

Thus were the final rites for a highly respected man, who lived in the community for more than fifty years, and who for more than forty years lived in Alpena and conducted business enterprises in such a manner that he helped build up the town and gained for himself an enviable reputation for honesty and loyalty. During the past several years he had been inactive in business, but until recently kept his interest in civic and political affairs.

While living on the farm west of Alpena in Cherry Township Mr. McMillan helped organize a Sunday school and was instrumental in securing a pastor to hold services at a nearby schoolhouse. He taught singing school for several years. After coming to Alpena he engaged in the business of buying and selling livestock, and later formed a partnership for the same purpose with P. P. Myran which continued until a few years ago. He financed putting in the first electric light plant in Alpena, which served the town from 1914 to 1919. He was financially interested in the telephone system here, and a partnership in a general store. During all of these years he was in demand as a farm auctioneer, continuing in that work successfully until as recently as about ten years ago, when he became unable to stand the work of the large farm sales.

Coming from a distance to attend the services were his son, Orville of Manderson, Wyoming, his daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. John Potter of Minneapolis; and his son George McMillan, wife and two children of Gann Valley, and Miss Georgia Aisenbrey of Marion.

The following brief obituary was read at the funeral service and tells only briefly the personal events of a life full of well-doing and great enterprise.

Obituary
William Hodge McMillan was born Dec. 12, 1861 to the family of John and Mary McMillan who lived on a farm near Wheeling, West Virginia. He received his public school education in that community and later attended Morgantown University.

Mr. McMillan married a childhood acquaintance, Medora Eugenia Kern, on the 5th day of January 1881. (see note below about wedding date and name)

To this union were born 7 children: Nina Pearl, Orville, Gracie, George, Isadore, Albert, and Golda--six of these children are still living. Gracie having died at the age of five.

Mr. and Mrs. McMillan resided in West Virginia until 1891 when they moved to a farm west of Alpena. Mr. McMillan lived on the farm until 1901 when he moved to Alpena where he lived until his death on Jan 13th, 1943 at 5:40 a.m. at the age of 81 years, one month, and one day. He was a member of the Alpena Lodge and of the Woonsocket Masonic Lodge for 40 years.
Mr. McMillan leaves to mourn his death six children, 10 grandchildren, one great grandchild and a host of friends.

James Conely - Was born in Licking county, O., Jan. 23, 1821, a son of Robert and Katherine (Yost) Conely, both deceased, and came to Marshall county, W.Va., in the spring of 1863. In 1845, he was married in Greene county, Pa., to Lucy Hughes, who was born May 11, 1828, a daughter of Nathaniel and Nancy (Sheron) Hugh, neither of whom are living. The following children have blessed this union, John N., Andrew F., Robert M., Asby S., dec., Martha, dec., and Sarah A. dec.

Comrade Conely was following his trade as a carpenter when he decided to enter the army, enlisting at Wheeling, W.Va., when forty years old in 1861, as bugler of Co. B, 1st W.Va. Cav. He was detailed several times as Ord., and while in this service was detached to carry dispatches from Winchester to Martinsburg. He was furloughed in Jan., 1862 for thirty days and returned to command at Patterson Creek at the expiration of furlough. He fought at Bloomery Gap where he was slightly injured in breast by horse falling on him; Winchester, Port Republic, and several others, receiving an honorable discharge at Reckertown, Va., June 22, 1862. His eldest son, John, was a soldier in the late war and was a member of the 1st W.Va. V. I. Comrade Conely is Adjt. of J. L. Goodwin Post, 39, is also a member of the Advent Church and is by occupation a farmer at Loudenville, W.Va., which is his address.

GERALD ROSSEL:

Descendants of Joseph Rossel

Generation No. 1

1. JOSEPH ROSSEL died 1866 in St Joseph Missouri. He married SUZANNE DETIVELY-DUTIVERVY-SCHNEIDER 1860 in Paris France, daughter of SCHNEIDER and LINTZ. She was born Jun 28, 1840 in Metz France, and died 1922.

Notes for JOSEPH ROSSEL:
13th infantry regiment to Joseph Fusilier Rossel hard to read good conduct metal in 1859 in France. Died of cholera. After his death Suzanne returned to Pittsburgh where she met Senn and they later married.

Burial: Missouri

Notes for SUZANNE DETIVELY-DUTIVERVY-SCHNEIDER:
Suzanne Parents were born and lived in Metz, Alsace-Lorane, belonging at that time to the French. Her father was a weaver and he also kept a dairy. Susan, my grandmother was the youngest of eight children, there being five girls and 3 boys. She was born in Metz also, on June 28, 1840.

About five years later around 1845, Robert Livingston had been making wonderful explorations and discoveries in Africa. The French were also interested in that southern country and were encouraing their citizens to make settlements there; so grandmother's father decided to take his family there. They sold their home in Metz and left by rail down through France to Marseilles, where they boarded a ship and crossed the Mediterranean to the town ow Algiers. Grandma often tells of how she disliked this trip. It was on her sixth birthday that they happened to be in the city of Lyons and she cried very bitterly at the thought of having a birthday so far away from home.

Negroes at that time were very rare in the northern part of France, so grandma had never seen one, but when they reached Algiers and were about to leave the ship, one of those big, black, homely fellows came on deck and seeing little Susan attempting to cross the gang-plank, gently lifted her to his shoulders and carried her across. He did it as a very kind act, but grandma, being s terribly frightened, could not see it that way and kicked and screamed all the while.

Their stay in Algiers was a very short one. The climate did not agree with them and they all became seriously ill, so they decided to return to France. They had invested and lost a large portion of their money in this new country, and so much sickness had also been a big expense. So on leaving, they discovered that they had sufficient funds only to pay their passage across the Mediterranean. They succeeded in reaching Marseilles, but from there a distance of six hundred miles lay between them and Metz. Knowing there was no other way of reaching home than by walking, they started--and walk they did--the whole six hundred miles, through the country of France. (100 miles a month=3+miles/day)

Grandma, being very small and not being able to stand much walking was carried the greater part of the way on her father's shoulders. After about six long months of tiresome trodding, they at last reached Metz. When grandma was sixteen her parents moved to Paris, where they lived the remainder of their lives. At twenty she married a young Frenchman by the name of Joseph Rossel and four years later, in 1864, they with their two small children (John and Frank) and grandmother's brother John, came to America. The trip over was made by a sail boat, and was a very slow one taking about three months. They arrived in New York Harbor on the fourth day of July, but had to remain on board ship because of small pox quarantine.

They stayed in New York awhile, but later went to St. Louis, Missouri, where her husband, Joseph Rossel died. Grandma with her two boys, John and Frank, came to Pittsburgh, where in 1869 she married Grandfather Senn.

They had seven children, all of whom are still living. They are: Louis, Rose, Julia, Clara, Joseph, Mary and William.
The second Daughter, Julia, my mother, was born on July 17, 1876, in Pittsburgh, Penna. At the age of nine her parents moved to Tarentum and in 1899 she married my father.

The above information was sent to us by Norma Kaschub of Pittsburgh, PA in the late 1990s.
